

POPULAR
SCIENCE

DVD Spectra

POPULAR
SCIENCE DVD Spectra

To use your DVD Spectroscope

- Point the slit in the 'opening' side of the DVD case towards the light source
- Look squarely through the hole in the 'front' of the case
- Move your head back and forward until you see the spectrum of the light
- For point sources (eg the Sun) use translucent plastic to diffuse the light
- To photograph spectra you will have to focus the camera beyond the surface of the DVD

instructables

STEP-BY-STEP COLLABORATION