

Mothers day charm bracelets- wire bracelets DIY

The wire bracelet DIY project aims to introduce you a kind of different mothers day charm bracelets. The final effect is pretty good, so mom will soon fall in love with them.

This mothers day charm bracelets look extremely demure and dainty, possessing kind of sedate and amiable temperament; especially the golden one can to a great extent demonstrate the beauty of a mature woman. Additionally, after the wire bracelets diy, you must have the crafting skill at your fingertips.

Materials and tools:

- 0.3mm golden copper wire
- Freshwater white pearls
- Wire cutter

Instructions:

Step 1: make top loop for wire bracelet

1st, snip 8-12 pieces of copper wire, (the amount of wires decides how wide your bracelet will be), each measuring about 80cm;

2nd, cut another piece of wire which will be used to wrap and braid;

3rd, slightly fold the bunch of wire to form a loop at fold place and wrap it with the single wire;

4th, as picture shows, the wrapped top loop is done.

Step 2: braid the wire bracelet

1st, do loose triple braiding a bit of length;
2nd, slide a bead onto the single wire and secure it by coiling;
3rd, continue braiding and beading till the length reaches what you desire.

Step 3: tackle with bottom end of bracelet

Loop the rest length at end from center to sides, creating a flower shape.

The final look is like this:

Tada, the mothers day charm bracelets are done! As you can see, in this wire bracelet DIY way, you can make out a variety of mufti-sized and multi-colored wire bracelets. Do a pair; wear with mom on mothers day!

Shop for an array of beads and charms please click:

<http://www.pandahall.com/>