

DIY bracelet holder- vintage styled bracelet display stand

This DIY bracelet holder project will teach you a quick way to make an ornate bracelet display stand; you can't miss such kind of vintage styled fashion.

If you have just now sorted out attic or garage, you might discover many things ignored in the past time, for example, the left over timber for fence building and unused baby crib. Discarding them in corner would make yourself a squanderer, why not utilize them to DIY bracelet holder, you just need a stylistic bracelet display stand!

Materials and tools:

- Rods from crib
- Wood from timber
- Super glue
- Sanding paper
- Saw
- Paint
- Knobs

Instructions:

Step 1: saw square wood for base

1st, saw timber into desired size;

2nd, drill a hole in the center of wood.

Step 2: paint the bracelet stand

1st, assemble the rod with base;

2nd, spray paint the new bracelet stand.

Step 3: end up this bracelet display stand

After the paint is dry, glue your favorite knot onto its top.

So we finish the vintage styled bracelet display stand now! If you place this DIY bracelet holder on dresser, it will become a brilliant ornament like an inviting cherry on a cake's top.

Buy varies of jewelry and gift please click:

<http://www.pandahall.com/wholesale-Jewelry-Gift/6.html>