

A novel necklace design- book shaped necklaces for girlfriend

This book shaped necklaces for girlfriend project is an excellent choice for Valentine's Day, her birthday and other celebration day necklace design.

I have been lurking on internet for a long while, and found that many DIY activities have come into new era about mini works, such as this one, personalized mini-book shaped necklace design. It is a perfect choice of necklaces for girlfriend, and the tiny craft won't let you down.

Materials and tools:

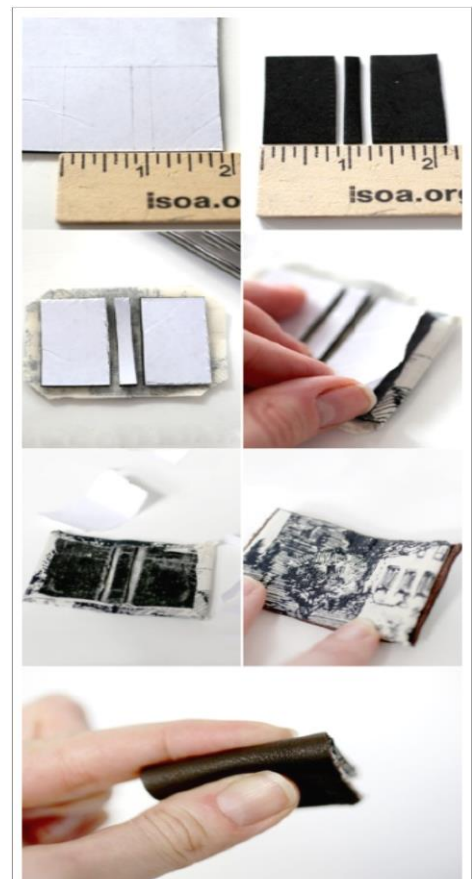

- Leather
- Printed cotton
- Cardstock
- Sticky-back foam
- Iron chain
- Jump ring
- Lobster clasp
- Awl
- Scissors
- Glues
- Pen
- Ruler

Instructions:

Step 1: make the inner page and cover

1st, measure out the size of the book you want to hang on your neck and draft the outline on foam;
 2nd, cut out the mini-sized foam parts and glue their black side onto fabric with some space in between;
 3rd, trim off excess fabric meanwhile leave a little extra around for edge covering;
 4th, lift the foam back paper a little and tuck the fabric edge;
 5th, peel off the back paper and stick it to leather;
 6th, trim off excess leather and close the book cover to form a virtual spine.

Step 2: make the book pages

- 1st, measure the rectangular paper shape on cardstock and cut it out;
- 2nd, fold it into accordion shape;
- 3rd, paint glue to inner spine;
- 4th, insert your pages in and let the spine part dry.

Step 3: complete the book necklace design

- 1st, use an awl to punch a hole at the top corner;
- 2nd, attach a jump ring and add your chain onto it.

In addition, with another jump ring and attach clasp onto chain, so the necklace for your girlfriend is done! This kind of mini-sized book pendant necklace design can also be applied in key chain, purse accessories and many more.
