

DIY necklaces- bib chunky pearl necklace

This DIY necklaces tutorial aims to teach you a simple method to make a glamorous chunky pearl necklace for wedding and important celebration parties.

In gloomy days, you may probably refuse to attend any outdoor activity. Can't tell me you would rather sit idly and becomes a potato couch or engage yourself in DIY necklaces and stimulate extinct creativity? Leisure time is also precious; I believe you prefer to make this bib chunky pearl necklace!

Materials and tools:

- Bib necklace stencil
- Pearl strands
- Satin ribbon
- Needle&string
- Felt
- Lace
- Glue
- Scissors

Instructions:

Step 1: prepare bib shape

- 1st, glue lace to felt and put bib stencil against it;
- 2nd, cut out the bib pattern;
- 3rd, glue chunky pearl group to center positions.

Step 2: attach ribbon to bib

- 1st, snip two pieces of ribbon and sew them to both sides of bib;
- 2nd, whipstitch the ribbon ends;
- 3rd, sew pearls to ends as picture shows.

Step 3: glue pearl strands to finish the bib

Cut proper lengths of pearl strands and glue them to bib edges to finish the pattern.

After they dry, the chunky pearl necklace is done; DIY necklace tutorial is completed here! If you want more different bib necklace, print the pretty patterns out, and make corresponding bib necklaces.

Shop for an array of beads and charms for your jewelry making please click:

<http://www.pandahall.com/>