2. Slide one pearl bead to the center. Then pass both two ends through one Tibetan bead;
3. Adjust the thread snugly and place the part on flat as picture shows;
4. Take the left end to form a loop, pass the tail under two vertical portions. Use the same end, work the second loop on right side, and pass the end under two vertical ones as well;

5. Take the unused right end, wrap the third loop, and then pass the tail through the loop 2 and loop 1, over and under as picture shows. Next go under the left end. Finally form the fourth loop and down through the loop2;

Step3: prepare the rest charms

Add beads and knot in same way.

For my pearl necklace designs, 5 pieces of this charm are required.

Step4: close the necklace

1. Take two thread tails, cross them on your index finger;
2. Nip the right one and wrap 6 or more times along the finger;
3. Pass the end through the coils from left to right direction;
4. Take the coils off and adjust each of them gradually;
5. Since tighten both ends, left 7cm long at tail end adorn with another 2 pieces of pearl beads. Affix with overhand knot and secure by lighter.
