

Jewelry making designs- multi-sized chain bracelet DIY

This tutorial shows you a multi-sized chain bracelet DIY; although it is not a novel jewelry making design, the final result is pretty good.

Most of our jewelry making designs are inspired from others' projects; at beginning we imitate all the popular fashion items, now learn to analyze the essential elements of current trends; consider in our own way and combine ideas together to create something new, like this chain bracelet diy.

Materials and tools:

- Handmade alloy chain
- 1.5mm silvery brass chain
- 6mm ivory glass pearls
- 6mm clear Czech glass beads
- 6mm gold acrylic bicone beads
- Tibetan style pendant sunflower
- Toggle clasp
- Eye pins
- Jump rings
- Round nose plier
- Flat nose plier
- Wire cutter

Instructions:

Step 1: make beaded chain

1st, make 5 glass bead links, 5 pearl bead links and 4 acrylic bead links respectively;
2nd, connect 3 (or 2) of them together as a chain unit;
3rd, assemble the units together, so the beaded chain is done.

Step 2: combine multi-sized chains together

1st, snip 2 pieces of silvery chain and 1 piece of large ring chain, each measuring the length of above beaded chain;
2nd, arrange them in the order as picture shows;
3rd, use jump rings to attach the chains with toggle clasp parts at both ends.

Step 3: add a pendant to embellish

Attach a Tibetan style pendant to the center of the 3 bottom chains.

Tada, the tutorial of chain bracelet diy is finished! I guess you would rather, spend a day in devoting yourself into experiments of jewelry making designs, than listen to the malarky of salesperson from a jewelry store. You will become sensitive to the sparks of inspiration, and create your wonderful works yet.

Shop for an array of pendant and charms to décor your jewelry welcome to visit:

<http://www.pandahall.com/wholesale-Pendants-Charms/294.html>