

Are there any recipes you've had to adjust because the ingredients aren't available where you are?

What is a sentimental food in your life?
What does it mean to you?

What is a time when someone had less so you could have more?

What makes food taste good to you?

Have you ever connected to a culture other than your own through food? What was that experience like?

Who do you love to cook for?
Why them?

What's the first recipe you learned and who taught you?

What is a dish you cook or eat that makes you think about your family roots?

Whats your philosophy with sharing food?